

FOR BRONCHITIS, SEVERE COUGHS COLDS AND WHOOPING COUGH

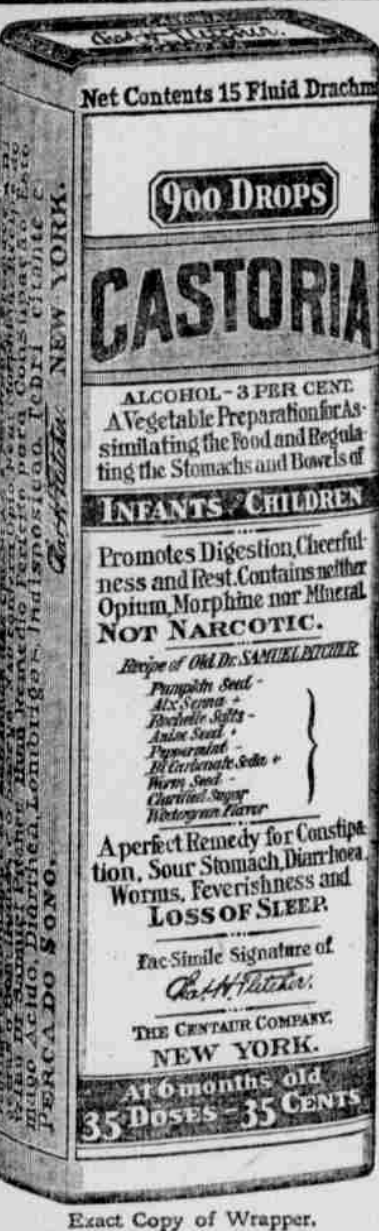

Make the Best Medicine at Home—128 Teaspoonful for 50 Cents

Money spent for the old-style, ready-made medicine, usually sold in bottles holding only 2 to 2½ ounces (16 to 20 teaspoonful), is largely wasted, because most of them are composed principally of sugar and water. Yet you have to pay the same price as if it were all medicine. Stop wasting this money. You can make a better remedy for bronchial affections at home at one-fifth the cost. Merely go to E. A. Drown's and ask for two ounces (50¢ worth) of Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectant, which they guarantee will give perfect satisfaction or money will be refunded. Mix this with one pint of boiling water, which makes a full pint (128 teaspoonful). This new, simple, pleasant remedy is guaranteed to

When you feel a cold coming on and commence to choke up, or if you are hoarse, or if your throat feels inflamed or affected, Briggs' Cough Drops will give you immediate relief. Perfectly harmless and agreeable to the taste.

RANDOLPH

The Rebekah lodge realized about $17.31 from their military whist party given last week.

Mrs. R. G. Morton returned Wednesday from Woodstock, where she had been since Saturday with her sister, Mrs. King, whose husband died last week and was buried on Monday.

Miss Jennie Wadleigh is in Boston this week with Mrs. J. E. Tewksbury.

Miss Sargent left on Wednesday for Woodsville, N. H., where she is to visit her sister, and also her brother, Ernest Sargent, and his family.

Mrs. C. C. Stevens, who has been in a serious condition, was taken to the sanatorium on Tuesday for an operation, hoping that would give relief. Mrs. Stevens rallied from the ether, but the surgeons give little or no hope in her condition. The sons, Ray Stevens of Middletown, Conn., with his wife, and Elton of Norwich, and a daughter, Mrs. James Menard of Norwich, with her children, arrived here on Wednesday. Another daughter, Miss Beattie, is at home.

Edward F. Richieu of North Randolph and Hattie Rattee of this place were married at the Bethany parsonage on Tuesday night by Rev. Fraser Metzger. It is understood that the couple will reside at North Randolph, where the groom is engaged in work upon a farm.

Mrs. Cornelia Coan of Enosburg Falls came on Wednesday for a few days' visit with her son, Homer White.

Miss Harriet Wilson, who has been seriously ill at the sanatorium for weeks, is thought to be losing ground.

The W. R. C. of this place accepted an invitation from the Bethel Relief corps, to visit them on Washington's birthday, and assist in the observance of the anniversary. Nineteen of the members of the Randolph corps went down and enjoyed the excellent program which was given and the fine refreshments which were served while there.

Mrs. Henry Howard, who died at her home in East Braintree, was buried here on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ina Gonyea came from Bethel on Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dales.

Miss Georgia White is at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Homer White, ill with an attack of the grip, from which she is improving.

WAITSFIELD

Mrs. Dwight Long was in Moretown Wednesday.

Next meeting of the Nature club will be Saturday, March 25.

Mrs. Carrie Barnard Gove of Warren was in town Tuesday.

Harry R. Carleton and Cora E. Enos of Boston were united in marriage at the Congregational parsonage Tuesday, Feb. 29, by Rev. W. A. Remick.

Dr. Foote of Burlington is spending a few days at A. W. Bigelow's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kingsbury were called to Moretown Monday by the death of Mrs. Kingsbury's father, M. M. Davis. Regular meeting of Valley lodge, No. 16, I. O. O. F., Friday evening, March 3. Practice on the initiatory degree. Per order of the noble grand.

The many friends of Mrs. Ellen Baird are glad to hear she is very much improved from the effects of her recent shock.

The Nature club has presented the reading room of the Joslyn library two magazines, "Birds" and "Nature and Bird-Lore."

Teachers' examinations will be held at Waitsfield March 2 and 3. By order of Norman Frost, superintendent of schools.

The nature room of the Joslyn library has been presented a fine specimen of pink coral from an island in the Indian ocean, contributed by Mrs. Abbie Taylor.

The Sunshine supper at the M. E. church Tuesday evening was enjoyed by those present. The dining room was tastefully decorated with yellow and white crepe paper streamers and the tables had yellow and white chrysanthemums. The food was yellow and white: Potato, egg and fish salads, sunshine and gold cake. "How I Did It" was an account given by the members of the ladies' aid how they earned a dollar apiece, which they handed in. With the proceeds of the supper, the affair netted about $25.

END INDIGESTION OR STOMACH PAIN IN FIVE MINUTES

"Pape's Diapiesin" Makes Sick, Sour, Gassy Stomachs Feel Fine

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know Pape's Diapiesin will save them from any stomach misery.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it, enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

WATERBURY

Madam Elizabeth Carpenter, 84 Years Old on Feb. 29, Celebrated Event.

Leap year was kind to Madam Elizabeth Carpenter, Feb. 29 being her birthday, which was celebrated by her children at her home on Union street.

Madam Carpenter was 84 Tuesday and retains to a large degree her activity, doing all her own work. With her that day were her four children and families, Jesse Carpenter, Mrs. Charles Bailey and Mrs. Sophia Williams of this town and Mrs. Walter E. Gray of Hyde Park, Mass. She was the recipient of many gifts, flowers, postcards, and a birthday cake, made by Mr. Woods at the hospital, had the initials of each present. Madam Carpenter also has two grandchildren, Harold Gray and Ethel Gray of Hyde Park, Mass.

Mrs. Carpenter was born in Waterbury in 1832, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller. She was married 50 years ago and has lived at her present home over 40 years. She is a member of the Baptist church on Little river.

Mrs. F. E. Atkins, who has been with Mrs. Amelia Atkins for a few days, has returned home, Mrs. Sarah Blair being at the Atkins home during the absence of Mrs. Ida Davis, who has been called to Burlington by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Wilkins.

Mr. Alcide Robarge, who has been quite ill, is much more comfortable. The nurse in charge of the case is Miss Marion Stalker, formerly matron at the Vermont state hospital.

Edson F. Palmer, who has moved into the house recently purchased of the Matt Carr estate, is making improvements on his block on Main street.

Judge E. W. Huntley was in Montpelier Tuesday as a representative from Waterbury chapter, R. A. M., to the funeral of Collins Blakely. Mr. Blakely was a charter member of the local lodge.

Allan Fogg, who formerly lived here, is master of the grange in Topsheld, Mass. Richard Demerit continues to improve.

Sumner Stearns, who has been ill, was able to be out Tuesday.

Clarence, the four-year-old son of Mrs. Lewis Morrow, is dead of bronchial pneumonia at his home in Mill village. The case seems particularly sad, as the father died about a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weir have arrived from Massachusetts and have opened the Weir home at Duxbury Corners in preparation for the arrival of Mr. Weir from Canada. Mr. Weir is unable to help himself since a stroke of paralysis a short time ago.

Mrs. Arletta Boyce is suffering with what seems to be poison in her hands. Her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Boyce of Montpelier, is with her.

NORTH MONTELLIER

Neil Templeton visited at his home in Northfield over Sunday.

Thomas Lawless was a business visitor in Barre Tuesday.

The Clark, who has been ill with rheumatism, is able to be about the house.

Mrs. May Johnson and daughter, Bertha, was in Williamstown Monday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Miss Susan Reynolds of Barre has returned to her work of caring for Mr. Knapp.

Mrs. Meddie Luther and sister, Mrs. Blanche Mathews of Barre visited their aunt, Mrs. W. G. Nye, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dodge and son left Monday for South Hero, where Mr. Dodge has employment as a butter maker.

Ephie Pray was a business visitor in Montpelier Tuesday.

Frank Worthing of Hardwick and Mr. Gill of St. Johnsbury were business visitors in town Thursday.

Misses Betsey and Elsie Clark are ill with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Martin of Marshfield were visitors at Mrs. Emma Chapin's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Pray, jr., went Saturday to Guild, N. H., where they have employment in the Fairbanks & Don Granite State mills.

Don't forget the Kinyon Konzert company next Monday night, March 6, at the hall. This company comes highly recommended and consists of Wilbur Kinyon, violinist, Miss Elsie MacPherson, soprano, Grace Lee Harris, piano soloist and accompanist, Kathleen Beck, reader.

It is expected that the North Montpelier Hall association will present their play, "The Mistress of St. Ives," at Marshfield, March 17. Further notice will be given.

PLAINFIELD

Moses Colby celebrated his 80th birthday Tuesday, Feb. 29. During the day several relatives and neighbors called on him.

Mr. Colby was born in this town in 1836, the son of Moses and Eunice (Goodrich) Colby. He has always lived in town and is the last of a family of seven children. Mr. Colby has one daughter, Mrs. Myrtle (Colby) Brebner of Barre, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Ethel Tierney and son have returned from Moretown.

Mrs. George Hollister and Mrs. Arthur Townsend were in Montpelier Monday.

Mrs. Albida Martyn spent Tuesday in Barre and Montpelier.

Prof. Elmore of Montpelier opened a dancing class at Bancroft inn Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Martin were in Montpelier Monday.

Miss Alice Batchelder went to Boston Monday to attend the millinery openings and purchase spring goods.

Mrs. Elsie Woodcock and son, Arthur, were in Montpelier and Barre Tuesday.

Mrs. Arthur Perkins and son, Marshall, have returned from Cabot, where Mrs. Perkins has been teaching.

O. L. Martyn went to Burlington Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Fish and Game league.

Mrs. Addie D. Parsels of Pennsylvania gave an interesting lecture at the Methodist church Monday evening.

Mrs. H. C. Cutting is spending a few days in West Charleston with her daughter, Mrs. Ruiter.

TERRIBLE ITCHING PIMPLES ON FACE

Large, Red and Hard. Burned So Large Spots Appeared. At Night Could Not Sleep.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"A few pimples made their appearance on my face, and thinking that they would soon disappear I did nothing to remedy them, but after a couple of weeks I then found that they were rapidly increasing. They were large, red and hard and they itched and burned so that soon large red spots appeared caused by my rubbing. At night I would rub my face it would itch terribly so that I could not sleep."

"I chanced upon a Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement and sent for a free sample, and then bought more and my face was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Edith C. Schuman, 17 Bedford St., Hartford, Conn., Sept. 20, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

BETHEL

Goddard Seminary Defeated Last Night By Bethel, 27 to 18.

The Bethel town basketball team defeated the team from Goddard seminary last evening, 27 to 18, as follows:

Bethel. Goddard.
Haskins, R. 19. Riley
Putnam, R. 18. A. Gosant
Blossom, C. 16. H. Gosant
McIntyre, R. 15. J. Conner
Wilson, Barnes, L. 14. Conner
Baskets from floor—Haskins 8, Blossom 2, Putnam, Conner 6, London, H. Gosant. Baskets from fouls—Putnam 5, Conner 2, Referee—Clark. Timekeeper—Kiddier. Scorer—Beal. The Whitcomb high school sophomores defeated South Royalton sophomores 28 to 16. The Whitcomb high school freshmen defeated Randolph freshmen 20 to 12.

William J. Toland, recently of this place, now of Burke, N. Y., bought 10 cows at the Dutton auction in Royalton Tuesday, two of them registered, the others grade Holsteins.

General Manager W. C. Clifford of the Woodbury Granite company had not returned last night from Philadelphia, where he was watching the award of a building contract. There were no developments yesterday in the granite situation locally.

Grammar school students, assisted by some of the high school freshmen, are holding rehearsals for a play to be presented March 17.

Max Bliss has been elected manager and Claude Williamson captain of the Whitcomb high school baseball team for the season of 1916.

The leap year ball Tuesday night was given by the young woman's club, and Gilson's orchestra furnished music. The hall was brilliantly decorated.

Joseph Bertani, former landlord of the Bethel inn, is head waiter at Hotel Frontenac, in Quebec.

Thomas J. Lavere has bought the E. T. Arnold property on Main street, which he had leased several years.

A. N. Washburn will at once remodel the room in the mill building known as Cushing hall and will use it for storage. The hall has existed 20 years and has been a convenience for many purposes.

Mrs. Charles L. Lilley will sell her household goods at auction next Saturday and with her son, Lawrence, will soon join Mr. Lilley at Moline, Ill., where he has a good position in a printing office.

Here's a Barre fact.
You can test it.
George L. Cummings, engineer, 125 Prospect street, Barre, says: "I had a constant, dull ache in the small of my back and was bothered by kidney weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Drown's Drug Store, cured these troubles, and there has been only two slight return attacks. At such times I have taken a few Doan's Kidney Pills and have found prompt relief."
